James Edward, father of Capt. F. A. Hendry, moved his family to near Tampa, Fla. in 1851. After a year in the new place he returned to his old home in Georgia for the rest of his cattle and to adjust all his unsettled business. While there and staying with his brother, Robert McFail, he developed diphtheria and died. He had been buried three weeks before his family learned of his death.

Robert McFail and his family moved to Taylor County, Florida soon after the Civil War, and bought a farm and lived there until his death, August 30, 1888. Robert M. was a licensed minister in the Methodist Church and he did a good deal of ministerial work in both Georgia and Florida. The Methodist Church at Shady Grove, Florida is named in his memory.

David Lee moved to Mississippi.

Harriet and William Carlton moved to South Florida and died at Fort Green.

Mary Winn and William C. Carlton moved to Taylor County, Florida where they died.

John McFail was converted at the old Mount Zion Camp-ground and became a Methodist minister. He was admitted to the Florida Conference (of which Southern Georgia was then a part) in 1847. He then began an active ministry that covered a period of nearly forty years. He "located" several times during his ministry but only for short periods. Rev. Hendry interested himself early in Christian Education at a time when the subject was yet not far advanced in the churches. It was through his efforts that the Southern Female College was established at Micanopy, Florida. He was the first President of the school. The school has since undergone several changes and is now known as Florida Southern College at Lakeland, Florida. He served as Presiding Elder of the Jacksonville district 1863 and 1864, and of the Brunswick district, 1867. He moved back to his old home community, near Morven where he died October 26, 1900. He and his last wife are buried at the Mount Zion Camp-ground Cemetery near Morven. One of his sons, George Pierce Hendry, followed him in the Methodist ministry.

Neil moved to Madison Co, Florida in 1851 where he bought a large plantation and farmed. In 1868 he moved back to his old home section which in 1858 had become Brooks County. In Madison County he served as Justice of Peace 1853-55, Representative in 1862-63 from Madison County and in 1863 from Taylor County. He served on the Board of Brooks County Commissioners from 1863 until his death, Nov. 16, 1892. His wife soon followed him in death, dying Dec. 27, 1892. They were buried in Oak Hill Cemetery, Brooks County.

It is interesting to note that two of the sons of William and Nancy Hendry became Methodist ministers, Robert M. and John M. Two of the Hendry brothers married Carlton sisters, James E. and Robert M. Two of the Hendry sisters married Carltons, Harriet and Mary Winn.

HENDRY, JOHN McFAIL.

1822-1900

BROOKS.

John McPhail Hendry was born July 5, 1822, in Liberty County, a son of William and Nancy McFail Hendry (see Vol. I). He was brought by his parents to Lowndes (now Brooks) County when they moved there in 1827. He was twice married. His first marriage was on Aug. 8, 1840, to Miss Abigail Campbell, born 1820, daughter of Alexander and Flora Campbell of the Morven district of Lowndes (now Brooks County). She died in 1857 at Micanopy, Fla., and he then married December, 1858, Miss Catherine Matilda Bell of Bellville, Hamilton County, Fla. She was born Oct. 6, 1835, and died Feb. 9, 1908. She was a daughter of James S. Bell. There were three children by the first wife, and five by the second wife, viz:

|------------------|---|
| 1. Salome | b. 1843, m. Enoch Hall Pike. |
| 2. Sophronia | b. 1847, m. Wm. A. Edmondson. |
| 5. (infant son) | b. 1853, died age 2 years at Micanopy, Fla. |
| 4. John M. | b. 1859, m. Susan M. Wilkins. |
| 5. James Edward | b. 1863, m. Alberta Holzendorf. |
| 6. Carrie Bell | b. 1867, m. William L. Folsom. |
| 7. George Pierce | b. 1874, m. Sallie Lou Pittman, dau. of Wm. B. |
| 8. Marvin E. | b. 1878, m. 1st, Margaret Mitchell; 2nd, Ethel D. McCormack; 3rd, Ethel Ault. |

John M. Hendry was converted at old Mount Zion Camp-ground in one of the annual camp meetings there, and soon thereafter experienced a call to the Gospel ministry. He was admitted to the Florida Conference (of which Southern Georgia was then a part) in 1847. He then began an active ministry that covered a period of nearly forty years. He "located" several times during his ministry but only for short periods.

Rev. Hendry interested himself early in Christian education at a time when the subject was yet not far advanced in the churches. It was through his efforts that the Southern Female College was established at Micanopy, Florida. He was the first President of the school. The school has since undergone several changes and is now known as Southern College at Lakeland, Florida.

He served as Presiding Elder of the Jacksonville district 1863 and 1864, and of the Brunswick district, 1867. The South Georgia Conference was created in 1867 by the General Conference of the Methodist Church, South, and he was a member of that conference until his death. Among his latter pastorates were the Spring Hill Circuit, 1885; Blackshear, 1886 and Lowndes Circuit, 1887-1888.

He moved back to his old home community, near Morven, and located on a farm November, 1883, but was readmitted December, 1884, and again located 1888, returning to his rural home near Morven, where he lived quietly, with some occasional preaching, until his death October 26, 1900. Rev. Hendry and his last wife are buried at the Mount Zion Camp-ground Cemetery near Morven.

Rev. Hendry was considered a powerful preacher in his day, and had a very fruitful ministry. One of his sons, George P. Hendry, followed him in the Methodist ministry.
